To Fernandez-Armesto, a civilization is "civilized in direct proportion to its distance, its difference from the unmodified natural environment . . . by its taming & warping of climate, geography & ecology". The same impersonal forces that put an ocean between Africa & India, a river delta in Mesopotamia, or a 2,000-mile-long mountain range in South America have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures. In a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies, each chapter of "Civilizations" connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history. In "Civilizations," the medieval poem "Sir Gawain and the Green Knight" is not merely a Christian allegory, but a testament to the 1,000-year-long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the...
