Tehillah Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 52 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Instead of giving a detailed description we have let our critics have their say. . enjoy their comments and choose for yourself. . Reformation of the Nations is a radical sometimes confrontational look at the Church and what we as Christian believrs need to be doing to advance the kingdom of God in our sphere of influence. Bless you as you read through. Dr Sharon Stone - European Apostle for Christian International Ministries - United Kingdom If we want the Glory of God to cover the earth as the waters cover the seas. If we desire to see the advance of the Kingdom of God we need Reformation in our Nations. This book helps us adopt the Seven Mountain Mandate through effecting society with the right mind set and spiritual responsibility. Reformation of the Nations gives us biblical examples of those who have changed their world and challenges us to be world changers also. Rev. Dr. Alfred Ansong Bimpang - Tower of Faith Ministries London United Kingdom Reformation has been on Doug and Rhona Baileys heart for years. As long as I have known them, practically it seems to be the subject we either start or end with whatever we find ourselves talking about even if the issue is about flowers. I am not surprised they have come out with this simple, easy to read and understandable yet compelling manual. What has touched my heart since reading the script and impressed on my heart is strategies. This is because I believe strategy is a managerial instrument and especially as governmental people, ensures that we play an integral part of Gods ongoing Kingdom and reformation. For us to perform our duties in the best possible manner in accordance with...
