Achievement U, Incorporated. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Tom Hall (illustrator). Paperback. 140 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in.Twins Carlos and Letty Thompson live in a tough neighborhood on the eastside of Oakland, California. Somebody stole their mothers car. The twins and their friends think they know who did it. Will they call the police or take the law into their own hands In Thompson Twins Call the Cops, second book of the Everyday Role Model Book Series, a project of Achievement U, Inc, is devoted to inspiring young people to live the best life they can. Your child will love reading the adventures of Letty and Carlos and they will learn valuable lessons about persistence, being a good friend, honesty, peer pressure and more. In the series, real role models come into the lives of Letty and Carlos Thompson. As the role models share their stories with the twins, they also share their story with the middle grade readers. The stories are designed to engage the reader with an entertaining story while teaching principles of achievement and success as practiced by everyday people who have a successful life. Your child will learn valuable lessons: understanding a third type of peer pressure, being a good friend to someone in need, making assumptions can lead to wrong results, following through on responsibilities is important, reporting crime to help make your neighborhood safe. This book features Lieutenant Sheryl Boykins of the Hayward Police Department. Scroll up to the top to order Thompson Twins Call the Cops for your child. This item ships from multiple locations.
