Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On April 29, 2010, we issued our final report on the Consumer Assistance to Recycle and Save (CARS) program. The law that provided a supplemental appropriation for the program directed us to review the Department's administration of CARS. In addition, Senator Charles Grassley requested that we, in fulfilling the statutory mandate, pay particular attention to the Department's ability to assure program integrity. For the report, we: (1) examined the effectiveness of NHTSA's controls to ensure that CARS transactions met Federal requirements; (2) identified challenges NHTSA faced in implementing the program; and (3) assessed NHTSA's progress in closing out the program, including evaluating compliance and accounting for total program costs. We found that while NHTSA's controls ensured that most CARS transactions met basic program eligibility requirements—such as fuel efficiency, ownership, and insurance—controls related to trade-in vehicle disposal are less effective. In addition, we found that immediate consumer response and the infusion of additional program dollars presented significant challenges to NHTSA's implementation of the CARS program; and that NHTSA has begun to take action...
