Y.; Being a Sermon, With an Account of the Sunday School Celebration, the General Morning Worship, the Dedication of the Mission Chapel, and the Vesper Service; Sunday, April 1876 Easter Sunday of the current year was an occasion of unusual importance to the Church of the Saviour, the dedication of the new Mission Chapel in Willow Place, added to the customary observances of the Anniversary, having crowded the hours with interest, and made them a marked era in the history of the Society. A desire was felt that the general proceedings of the day should have some suitable and permanent record in pamphlet form, and hence the publication of the following pages. Most of the songs, prayers and readings are here omitted altogether, or are only partially indicated. Some of them, as they occurred in the Sunday School and Mission School services, appeared in full in the two printed Orders of Exercise, copies of which were distributed and used at the time. The reports which are given of the various addresses of the Pastor, and of Messrs. Low, Ropes and White, are due to the well-known stenographer, Mr. E. P. Ackerman, of this city.
