Excerpt from A Sermon Preached in the United Congregational Church: At Newport, R. I., Sunday, September 25, 1881 Matt. XVIII., 19. If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in Heaven. Comp. John, XIV., 13, 14; XV., 7; XVI., 23; James V., 15, 16. The period through which we have been passing since the 2nd of last July, has been filled with more profound feeling than has ever before come into the lives of any of us, as called out by a common cause. The painful and long continued suspense, the extreme alternations of hope and despair, the anxiety about the effect upon public affairs, have weighted the crisis. The universal and most tender sympathy with the sufferer, the love and admiration caused by his heroic courage, his patience, his unfaltering Christian faith, have deepened the common feeling. Sympathy and admiration for the bearing of those most nearly concerned in the sorrow, have added their influence. Every word, every pain, every change, has been anxiously watched. Never before have any of us felt so keenly and so deeply, except when our own nearest and dearest have entered upon the conflict with death. And the feeling has been simultaneous throughout the whole country. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
