CBI AND 2G

Har-Anand, New Delhi, 2012. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. India has seen many vicissitudes. It was widely believed that after India attains independence and throws away the foreign yoke, things will become ideal for us-the common Indians. It is a sad confession that malpractices and corruption have taken the country to a low abyss. As per the report of Transparency International of 2010, we are the 87th most corrupt country in the world, with an integrity score of 33 out of 100. India has become a land of scams. My first book contained details of how CBI handled the scams in 1990s. They look peanuts, if you compare them to Commonwealth Games, 2G and Adarsh Housing Cooperative Society scams. NREG or national Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme has become another guarantee for the corrupt to loot what really belongs to the poorest of the poor. CAG (Comptroller and Auditor General of India) has estimated the loss to the national exchequer at over 1.75 lakhs crores. Joginder Singh, M.A in English, was in Indian Police Service. He retired as Director CBI, after a distinguished service from 1961 to 1997. His father, late Mahant Kartar Singh, was the biggest ???Positive Thinker??? and totally upright. He always advised him to live by the sweat of brow. His deep religious influence transformed the author, who studied in Government Primary and High Schools, as well as Government College, Ludhiana. Mr. Singh is a well-known columnist. He has authored 53 books (including translations in Indian languages) so far, with many more in the pipeline. One of his books has been published in Bahasa Indonesia. He is in great demand as a Guest Speaker. His column appears regularly in national and regional dailies, both in English and vernacular languages. Page Extent: 152.
