Narosa Publishing House, 2011. Hardcover. Condition: New. Modelling and Optimization are the key tools for scientific analysis of real life systems. In the present scenario, the applications of modeling and optimization for the study of business and market system provide advantages over the competitors, where cutting age and successive innovative technologies in products and services are ever changing due to information and communication technology revolution. These competitive advantages for products and services are possible by developing knowledge base through scientific analysis of the market. Since modeling and optimization theories find their applications in every sphere of disciplines such as finance, marketing, information and communication technology, data mining, environment, life sciences to name a few. This book is useful for beginners as well as practitioners of business and industry, research laboratory and academics. Table of Contents Acknowledgement / Profit Maximization Policy for Manufacturers in a Supply Chain Management System / Optimal Release Policy for a Discrete Flexible Model Incorporating the Effect of Fault Removal Efficiency under Fuzzy Environment / Inventory Decisions for Deteriorating Items with Variable Carrying Cost under Inflationary Conditions / Effect of Inflation on a Production Model / Semantic Web Enabled Resource Scheduler: A Case Study for Scheduling Academic Events / Multimodal Biometric Authentication System: A Comparative Study of Classifier Fusion / Bi-Criteria Optimal Component Selection for Fault tolerance COTS Based Software System under Recovery Block Scheme / Robustness Studies on Statistically Distributed Watermarked Images / User Satisfaction Based Measurement Model for Quality of Service and Fairness / Role of Cytotoxic T Lymphocytes in Progression of HIV / Distributed Database with Implicit Registration and 2-Level Pointer Strategy for Location Management in PCS Network / Second Order Symmetric Duality for Multiobjective Programming using Cone Convexity / On the Effect of Marketing Variables on Innovation Diffusion Process / Mean and Variance...
