The Sunday School is the oldest, the largest, and, on the whole, the most prosperous institution for education in Wesleyan Methodism. The first Sunday School was commenced by Robert Raikes, in the year 1781. That benevolent man beheld, on the Lord s day, a group of miserable wretches, in the neighbourhood of a gin-manufactory in the city of Gloucester; and, being deeply affected by the consideration of their neglected and ignorant condition, he devised for their benefit a plan of Sabbath-day religious instruction. He placed them under persons competent to catechise them, and to read to them the Scriptures; and had them conducted to a place of public worship, on a part of the Lord s day. The beneficial results of this plan of instruction were soon...
