The shepherds wondered that their Saviour, who was to be, as they thought, a great king and ruler, should be born in a stable, instead of a palace, and for his only cradle should have a manger. What is a manger? asked Mary. It is a place where hay is put for the horses and cattle to eat. This one was full of hay, and made a soft bed for the little babe. The reason why Mary and her husband were lodging in a stable at this time was, that they had come to Bethlehem a few days before, and had found the inn full. A great many strangers were in the town at the same time, and there was no room left for the new-comers to sleep...
