New Book no DJ pictorial softcover. 64 pages with many black and white illustrations. 'A beautiful tall Canadian pine growing on the Nander river in Nova Scotia was felled, carried downstream to be loaded onto a freighter bound for Scotland. Using the pure waters of Scottish streams the tree was gradually turned into paper of the purest white. Those pristine sheets were lovingly impressed with oils and pitments from all over the world to produce this book. Dialect is used in this book and there is a recipe for making pasties.
