By I. Todhunter

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 344 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from An Elementary Treatise: On the Theory of Equations; With a Collection of ExamplesThe present treatise contains all the propositions which are usually included in elementary treatises on the Theory of Equations, together with a collection of examples for exercise. As the Theory of Equations involves a large number of interesting and important results, which can be demonstrated with simplicity and clearness, the subject may advantageously engage the attention of a student at an early period of his mathematical course. The present treatise may be read by those who are familiar with Algebra, since no higher knowledge is assumed, except in Arts. 149, 175, 268, 308. . . 314, and Chapter xxxi. , which may be postponed by those who are not acquainted with De Moivres Theorem in Trigonometry. This work may be regarded as a sequel to that on Algebra by the present writer, and accordingly the student has occasionally been referred to the treatise on Algebra for preliminary information on some topics here discussed. In composing the present work, the author has obtained assistance from the treatises on Algebra...
