

Hackamore Rein a Vampire from Spain: Rodrigo Garcia Olza

By Dg Farnsworth

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Normally when you hear hoofbeats you think about horses. Maybe sometimes you should think about zebras. Vampires may be scary, but for some people they aren't half as frightening as falling in love. This novel changes the traditional paradigm of a vampire. Triston Fallonside and Rodrigo Garcia Olza are as close as two friends can be. Their friendship developed after a clandestine benefactor offered Triston a scholarship to Spain's most exclusive equestrian riding school, right after the puzzling death of his mother. Decades earlier, Triston's father, a world-renowned Kentucky thoroughbred veterinarian, was killed in a mysterious accidental fall off a Barcelona cliff. Rodrigo's mother, a young, well-known world-class Olympic horse jumper, suffered a puzzling, agonizing death weeks after the birth of her son. Hence, Rodrigo Garcia Olza's grandfather, Spain's most famous matador, is left to raise his grandson. The media frenzy escalates around two of Spain's most famous sports figures from a single family -- both caught up in a baffling murder mystery tied to Triston Fallonside's Kentucky Bluegrass family....
