

The Ugly Spirit

By Steven LaVey

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Ugly Spirit is a fictionalised, autobiographical, pornographic-romance that charts the drug and alcohol induced existential break down of a modern man. The novel details the explicit myriad sexual encounters of the author as he searches for fulfilment in the birth and death of his relationships. Along the way, he opens a philosophical black hole inside himself that sucks in Satanism, Buddhism and new rituals of Dionysian hedonism. Trapped in poverty during the long, snowy days of a Novocastrian winter, he finds himself alone with the grim and ugly face of his creative identity. The time that speed steals from you, it gives back with interest, cold and hard on a Monday morning. It brings with it a terrifying despair that creeps upon you. It is a black, slow-motion suicide. The ceiling begins to drip and ooze grey-brown sludge. Aural hallucinations, the demons of psychosis, speak wordless words of pure dread. Sometimes I would laugh and giggle hysterically at inane nonsensical stories that would play out in my mind. I would watch them unfold, like a lucid dream,...
